58th Annual Montana State Science Fair

Schedule of Events

SUNDAY, March 17

2:00-6:00 pm Early Check-in/Late Registration begins in the PARTV Lobby

($20 entry fee per student collected for those who have not yet paid or $25 late entry fee per student collected for those who have not preregistered) Exhibit set-up will be on Monday morning ONLY

MONDAY, March 18

8:00-12:00 noon Registration and Exhibit Set-up in the Adams Center

Exhibit Set-up: Grades 6-8—Adams Center Sports Arena (Lower Level) Grades 9-12—Adams Center North Level B (Main Level) (Students must remain at exhibits until exhibits have been inspected by the Sign and Safety Committee)

11:00-12:00 noon Judges Orientation—In the Sky Club (signs will be posted)

nch break for Student Exhibitors

Options will be available on or near campus.

ging*--Students must remain at exhibits (No parents or teachers will be allowed on the exhibit floors) Fair Photographer will be circulating to take participant photos

Released

ibit Viewing Open to Students and Public—Students may return to see their exhibits (optional)

19

ntana Science Fair Open to Public for Viewing

Ceremony at the University Theater

Important Reminder: Teachers and parents are NOT allowed to sit in the lower level of the theater.

*Judging is modeled after the ISEF procedures; i.e., there will only be one round of judging. Gold, Silver, and Bronze ribbons will be placed on winning exhibits after students are released at 4:30 pm and can be viewed when the fair opens to the public.	Important Reminder: Students must leave their exhibits up for public viewing until after the awards ceremony on Tuesday, March 19, 2013.